Re: Mulgrew v. United States Dep't of Transp. ("Mulgrew"), No. 24-cv-01644 (LJL); Chan v. U.S. Dep't of Transp., ("Chan") No. 23-cv-10365 (LJL)

Dear Judge Liman:

As your Honor is aware, we are counsel to the Mulgrew and Chan Plaintiffs. We write, in light of the Court's December 13, 2024 Order, to seek clarification on the scope of oral argument scheduled for Friday, December 20, 2024. The Court's Order states that the Court intends to consider preliminary injunction applications in the four Congestion Pricing matters on Friday. Separate from the injunction applications before your Honor are motions to dismiss and motions and cross-motions for summary judgment on the constitutional and NEPA claims. Plaintiffs wish to confirm that these claims will not be the subject of the hearing.

We thank the Court for its guidance.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Alan M. Klinger

Alan M. Klinger

Attorney for Mulgrew and Chan Plaintiffs

The December 20 hearing is limited in scope to the preliminary injunction motions before the Court. The parties may discuss the motions to dismiss and cross-motions for summary judgment only to the extent those motions inform the preliminary injunction analysis.

SO ORDERED.

LEWIS J. LIMAN
United States District Judge
